Hunger Service Project Ideas

Listed below are some service project ideas addressing the issue of Hunger. If you decide to do one of them, be sure to check with the non-profit organization you are planning to work with to make sure the project would be something that they could use. We will add more project ideas as we find them.

Sending Love - When people are going through hard times, it helps a lot to get messages of love and support. If you have seen on the news that there are people who are sad or need help, you can use this project to show you care. Take a few minutes of time with kids and teens to spread awareness for those in need, and empower your them to do something about it.

Breakfast Boxes - Collect healthy breakfast foods so kids can start every day with a healthy meal! Be sure to include an uplifting note.

Pantry Raid – Provide all the people participating in the raid a plastic or paper grocery sack. Open your kitchen cupboards and pick out unopened cans, boxes or bags of nutritious food. Bring it to school to donate to a food pantry.

Bake Bread – Bake bread or muffins wrapped in notes of HOPE, INSPIRATION or GRATITUDE to honor our heroes and help those in need. Donate to an organization that can distribute for you.

Community Garden - Participate in spring planting or weeding/ prepping of community vegetable garden

Birthday Bags – Create and donate birthday bags to a food pantry for kids celebrating their birthdays who may not be able to afford to purchase what they need to have a party, like cake mix, etc...

Supply Drive – Collect or purchase supplies and give to a local garden for students or other volunteers to work in the garden and produce food to be given to local families at stands and markets

Canned Food Drive – Learn what the food pantry really needs a do a drive for those items.

Toiletry Drive – Collect or purchase supplies needed such as toiletries and canned goods and then deliver them to the organization
